THE SERVICE WE PROVIDE

H L Hawes & Son Funeral Directors are committed to the continuous improvement of the standard of service we provide to all our clients. Our approach to client care, services and support is very straightforward – essentially, we treat them as we would like to be treated ourselves.

Our long tradition of caring and concern clearly illustrates our genuine understanding of our clients and their needs. This is why generations of families have put their trust in us.

We aim to provide a service that meets the individual needs of our clients by guiding them through the arrangements, procedures and legal requirements.

Our personnel are fully trained on arranging a funeral and services for families from all different cultures, religions and non-religious beliefs.

A clear pricing policy and a full written estimate of funeral directors charges, disbursement fees and other service charges, together with confirmation of the arrangements are provided before the funeral.

We offer a Limited Service Funeral which is an affordable and dignified funeral, carried out with care and consideration, and conducted in accordance to the guidelines as set in this booklet.

In association with Golden Charter, the largest UK's independent funeral plan provider, H L Hawes & Son Funeral Directors offer - 'The Independent Way' personalised plan.

More information about the funeral plan can be found at <http://www.yourfuneraldirectors.co.uk>

Although we no longer sell The Hawes Funeral Plan offered in association with Funeral Planning Services Ltd, we do fulfil our commitment to carry out all plans previously sold by us.

Our commitment to the local community continues after the funeral in providing bereavement support.
